LEADERSHIP GREATER VALLEY 2010

“If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader.”

John Quincy Adams

WHAT IS IT ABOUT?

Leadership Greater Valley (LGV) combines leadership skill building with community education. During the nine-week program, participants get a bird’s-eye view of the issues facing the community, begin developing the leadership skills necessary to assume leadership roles and are exposed to involvement opportunities in the community. The class is limited to 15 selected individuals – those who will have the personal opportunity to learn from the leaders of many local organizations and associations. Leadership Greater Valley is unlike other programs because it provides a catalyst for community vision and change – it builds a better tomorrow for all of us.

WHAT DOES IT OFFER YOUR COMPANY?

Many employers derive multiple benefits from their investment in Leadership Greater Valley. Often the involvement of their employees in LGV paves the way for future cooperative efforts. The valuable training benefits employers in many ways. Leadership Greater Valley:

- Grooms leaders that contribute to their organizations.
- Provides professional networking opportunities.
- Helps employees develop greater personal vision.
- Offers exposure for companies.
- Reinforces skills and imparts knowledge to participants.
- Improves employees’ vision for “big picture” thinking.
- Provides a package of cost-effective, efficient training.
- Provides a return on investment.
- Enhances problem-solving skills.

WHAT DOES IT OFFER THE INDIVIDUAL?

Many graduates find that this training taps something in them that they didn’t know was there. Today, they are contributing to vital areas of the community including political roles, business, arts, social services and community civic organizations. Participants will gain from Leadership Greater Valley:

- A far greater understanding and perspective of the community.
- Improved leadership skills.
- Improved decision-making skills.
- A new network of professionals.
- Enhanced confidence.
- Unparalleled learning opportunities.
- A passion to improve our community.
- Instills community trusteeship understanding.

This program format has proven successful in many Connecticut communities. We encourage you to review the program details and see how you might benefit at your workplace as a member of the class of 2010. LGV COURSE OUTLINE & SCHEDULE

SESSION 1) QUALITIES OF LEADERSHIP

Thursday, September 16th – 3:00-7:00pm

At the core of many current leadership models is the concept of change – how to foster and manage it. This hands-on workshop presents models and practices associated with establishing an innovative environment and specific leadership tools to maximize performance levels and the ability to operate as change leaders.

SESSION 2) HISTORY OF THE VALLEY

Thursday, September 23rd – 12:00 (noon)-5:00pm

In order to understand where we are going, we must first learn where we have been. This session will open your eyes to the reasons why the Valley has played a key role in manufacturing in the United States and how important leaders such as George Washington and Thomas Jefferson were linked to some of the towns in the Valley.

SESSION 3) ETHICS & DIVERSITY

Thursday, September 30th -- 3:00-7:00pm

Some people might wonder about the connection between ethics and diversity. These two areas share common ground. Ethics serves as the soil in which the seed of diversity must be planted and from which our understanding of the relationship grows. In this session you will learn how to power-up your self-awareness and capitalize on the experiences and ideas of others to increase productivity, achieve organizational goals and improve overall business results.

SESSION 4) GOVERNMENT, EDUCATION AND PUBLIC SERVICES

Thursday, October 7th -- 3:00-7:00pm

This session will explore the roles and responsibilities of our federal, state and local officials and will engage participants in a discussion on the important issues that are shaping the future of our communities.

SESSION 5) ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND THE REGION

Thursday, October 14th -- 3:00-7:00pm

What are the forces driving the region's economy? In this session, participants will interact with a diverse mix of private and public sector leaders that are shaping the Valley's economy for the 21st century.

SESSION 6) HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Thursday, October 21st -- 3:00-7:00pm

Non-profits...what are they? How do they run? What is their value to the community? This session will introduce participants to the Valley's health and human service community and the role of an effective board member.

SESSION 7) LIFE & LEISURE IN THE VALLEY

Thursday, October 28th -- 3:00-7:00pm

There is much to see and do in the Valley. Whether it's a experiencing a new culinary experience or taking a scenic hike, the area offers numerous options for everyone. This session will explore and celebrate the individuals, organizations and venues that provide a vital dimension to life and leisure in the Valley.
